

Malcolm wins top press award

New Milton Table Tennis Club's press officer and treasurer Malcolm Floyd has won the English Table Tennis Association's prestigious Press Secretary of the Year Award (2009) along with Rob Loxley of the Sheffield league.

Malcolm, who plays for New Milton in the Bournemouth & District League and is also the League's Results Secretary, was presented with his prize at the ETTA's English Open in Sheffield at the end of October where he was a guest of honour. He won the award for his tireless work in raising the profile of table tennis across Bournemouth and district and the New Forest with his contributions to amongst other publications, the New Milton Advertiser and the Lymington Times.

The photo shows Malcolm being presented with his award by the ETTA head of publicity, Jim Beckley.